

positive behavior principles

Prevention

Behavior mainly occurs in a relationship.

Good teaching incorporates a balance of ritual and novelty.

It is easier to channel behavior than to stop it.

Modeled behaviors are internalized.

Intervention

Attention magnifies behavior.

Developmental levels influence behavior.

Positive behaviors are strengthened through skill development.

Crisis

When stressed, the thinking brain shuts down.

Behaviors are often the result of ingrained patterns.